

IMPORTANT - NEW YORK UPDATE

Dated:2/6/2012

This weekend is the 8th Annual New York Snow Run at the George Hildetbrant Recreation Center in Old Forge. WE WILL RIDE!

The snow came on this past Friday evening.. there is a base of snow on the trails and the weather is going to stay chilly. They are calling for more snow this week and even on Friday! Ok, its not the best winter ever, but there is riding and we will "Ride in honor and in memory of those we love!"

Thank you to all that did their snow dances! We have a great event planned for you, live music with the Joe Bolton Band both nights, the added ugly sweater contest on Friday night and more.

PLEASE CHECK YOUR EMAIL ON WEDNESDAY.. If conditions change we will make an announcement then and will have other activities planned for you.

Please, if you have friends that have not yet registered, please have them email us today. There are also Friday Night Welcome Party only tickets. If you attend both days of the event, you would purchase the full event registration. pinkribbonriders@yahoo.com
