Survivor Spotlights

Alicia McVannel: Michigan

A full-time volunteer with Pink Ribbon Riders and also the chairperson of the Michigan Snow Run.

Here are her thoughts on volunteering with PRR;

“The meaning of ‘pay it forward’ has never been truer in my life. I gladly volunteer for Pink Ribbon Riders so other breast cancer patients may have at least one moment of relief in their daily struggle to fight this awful disease.”

Danae Vavra: North Dakota/ MN area.

“Thank you so much for the wonderful gift of $500.00. It has made a world of difference not to have the worry of bills during my treatments. Your very generous gift has allowed me to take the week following each of my chemotherapy treatments off so that I can fully recover from the fatigue and achiness the medication causes.

Without your support, there is no way we could have afforded this.

Lori: New York

“I wanted to take the time to thank you for the generous grant that will help me pay for my surgery. It is times like these that we really appreciate the goodness and efforts of organizations such as yours. I cry for every woman going through this same trauma in their lives. However, I am very optimistic in the future and am extremely grateful for the support of my team.”
Lori from New York
